

Booking Terms and Conditions

This document (together with the documents referred to on it and supporting document listed on our terms and conditions page) tells you the terms and conditions on which we book any of the activities / services listed on our website www.showcaseco.uk (our site) or contained within our current timetables.

Please read these terms and conditions and our policies (available at showcaseco.uk/downloads) carefully before booking any of our services or activities in person, through our site or (if possible) by telephone.

You should understand that by booking any of our services or activities, you agree to be bound by these terms and conditions. We recommend that you print / save a copy of these terms and conditions for future reference.

When you are engaging with our products or services you are entering into a contract with the individual franchisee licensed to provide the services and products under the Showcase Studios (TM) franchisor. You will receive payment details and registration information from the franchisee company who you are entering into a contract with. The franchisor owned by Showcase Company UK Ltd and protected intellectually by Showcase Studios Group has no liability to the contract held between the consumer and the individual franchisee.

We will email you a copy of these terms and conditions upon request to confirm a telephone booking, and all other form of booking will reference an acknowledgment of our terms and conditions and if you do not agree with them, please cancel your booking in accordance with clause 10.1.

Please understand that if you refuse to accept these terms and conditions, you will not be able to book any services / activities with us.

All Participants involved within the Showcase Dance & Stage Holiday workshops will be (on the date of the Course(s)), between the ages of 5 and 16 years old and in full time education; and (f) you are resident in and are accessing our site from the United Kingdom.

2. How the contract is formed between you and us

2.1 After booking our activities / services online, in person or by telephone, you will receive an e-mail from us confirming the booking (Booking Confirmation) which is when the contract between the franchisee (Contract) is formed.

2.2 The Contract will relate only to those services / activities whose booking we have confirmed in the Booking Confirmation. We will not be obliged to supply any other services / activities which may have been part of your booking until the confirmation of booking of such services / activities has been confirmed in a separate Booking Confirmation.

3. Quality of Services / Activities

3.1 Unless we are prevented from doing so by a Force Majeure Event, we will provide services / activities which: (a) conform in all material respects with their description (on our site or in the timetables); (b) are carried out with reasonable care and skill; (c) are fit for any purpose we say the services / activities are fit for; and (d) comply with all applicable statutory and regulatory requirements for supplying the Courses in the United Kingdom.

3.2 This warranty is in addition to your legal rights in relation to services which are not carried out with reasonable skill and care or which otherwise do not conform with these terms and conditions. Advice about your legal rights is available from your local Citizens' Advice Bureau or Trading Standards office.

3.3 These terms and conditions apply to any substitute services / activities such as virtual programmes we arrange with you in the event that the original services / activities do not conform with these terms and conditions.

3.4 You must provide us, in sufficient time, with any information and instructions relating to the services / activities that is or are necessary to enable us to provide the services / activities in accordance with these terms and conditions.

This information includes completion of a Customer Registration Information Form in respect of each client, together with any other information about the participants that you think is relevant for us to know in respect of the services / activity(s).

3.5 If you do not, or you provide us with incomplete, incorrect or inaccurate information or instructions, we may cancel the Contract by giving you written notice.

3.6 Safeguarding – we follow strict procedures to keep all clients safe, this also means that if we suspect a child / adult is at risk of harm we will alert the relevant authority, this is usually done so with parents' permission unless the child is in immediate danger.

4. Provision of services / activity(s)

4.1 We will provide the activity / services (s) to the Participant(s) on the date(s) set out in the Booking Confirmation. We will make every effort to carry out the services / activity(s) on time but there may be delays due to circumstances beyond our control. In this case we will complete the activity / services as soon as reasonably possible, and in the event, we have to cancel a service / activity (this is not the same as providing an alternative service as outlined in 3.3) you will be offered a place on an alternative activity / service or a full refund.

4.2 We may have to suspend a service / activity if we have to deal with technical problems, or to make improvements to the service / activity. We will let you know in advance where this occurs, unless the problem is urgent or an emergency.

4.3 We reserve the right to modify a service / activity due to adverse weather conditions, low attendance or other unforeseen circumstances such as pandemic restrictions and will notify you of such modification as soon as possible.

5. Client Registration Information Form and Release of liability

5.1 Within the Booking Confirmation email you will be sent a form / link setting out the participant's details, (a Registration Information Form). The Registration Information Form must be completed for each Participant truthfully and comprehensively, providing us with all information which maybe relevant to the Participants taking part in the Course including COVID-19 track and trace information.

5.2 Please, complete, sign and date the Registration Information Form on the first day or before taking part in the selected service / activity. We will be unable to accept a Participant or a booking without a completed Registration Information Form, for any clients under the age of 16 years a parent / guardian over the age of 18 years will be required to sign the registration form to take part in any of our services or activities.

6. Attendance at Selected Service / Activity (s)

6.1 We reserve the right to remove a Participant from the service / activity (s) or to refuse admittance should we deem it necessary to do so. This includes where a Participant does not comply with the safety rules and advice, does not act responsibly and courteously, is disruptive, does not participate, behaves in a way we deem to be inappropriate in the circumstances, fails to respect or affects the enjoyment of the service / activity for other Participants.

6.2 Participants should be dressed appropriately for their activities of the service or activity(s) on which they are enrolled into, please see the Showcase Dance & Stage uniform list for classes relevant to Showcase Dance & Stage. We reserve the right to refuse admittance to any Participant who we consider not to be appropriately dressed.

6.3 Participants are required to wear the safety equipment provided by us at all times during the activities. We reserve the right to remove from the service / activity (s) any Participant who refuses to wear the necessary safety equipment.

6.4 Participants are expected to be reasonably fit and healthy and not suffer from any medical condition which would make it more likely that they would be involved in any incident which could result in injury to themselves or others. If you are in any doubt as to whether the Participant should attempt the activities we have set out in our service / activity details, do talk to us about your concerns prior to booking and ensure your health practitioner approves your attendance.

6.5 No refunds or compensation will be payable by us in the event that any Participant is not permitted to, or decides not to, undertake or complete the activity / service (s) for the reasons set out in this clause.

6.6 Attendance – We ask that you inform the team at reception if you or your child is going to be absent, with a reason. This is also for safeguarding purposes. Please be aware that fees are still payable if

- If you or your child are poorly
- You go on Holiday
- You do not attend

It is not possible to swap days or change hours without first given the calendar months' notice. However, under the discretion of the Manager, an emergency extra session can be booked without notice if the business has space, and payment is made at the time of booking.

6.7 If you or your child is poorly with sickness and/or diarrhoea we request that they do not attend the setting for 24 hours after the last episode. If you or your child becomes unwell while attending the setting, we will assess the circumstances and a decision will be made whether you or your child needs to be collected to make sure the bug is not spread to other children or staff.

6.8 If your or your child have signs of COVID-19 or any other virus's please follow the government advice and do not attend the studios, refunds cannot be issued for being unwell, however the managers discretion we may be able to offer an alternative service such as virtual classes and or a credit for future services.

7. Courses, Workshop and Retreats

From time to time, we may offer residential / on site Courses during which Participants will have activity days and overnight stay(s) (Residential Courses). The terms in this clause 8 apply to all Courses.

7.2 We will provide you with a list of recommended items the Participant should bring to a course and you are responsible for providing these items for use by the Participant.

7.3 We may take the Participant offsite for supervised visits and excursions that either form part of the course or are ancillary to it and you hereby consent to these offsite visits.

7.4 You and the Participant are responsible for the Participant's behaviour while on a course and we reserve the right to remove any Participant who behaves in a way we determine is unacceptable or inappropriate from the course and will notify you to come and collect the Participant from the site.

7.4 We shall not be liable for the consequences of any inappropriate behaviour or the loss of any course fees which are non-refundable in the event of removal of a Participant under the circumstances of clause

8. Medical Attention

In the unlikely event that any Participant requires medical attention during our service / activities, including any Residential Course, we will provide first aid on site and make every attempt to contact the next of kin / parent / guardian.

8.1 You acknowledge and consent to our taking the Participant offsite to obtain medical attention when we deem this is required, if necessary, without your consent, in an emergency.

8.2 For all medications required a medical authorisation form must be completed by the participant or next of kin / parent / guardian if a child is under 18 and before the first day or before the activity commences.

9. Transport

9.1 Unless we have agreed otherwise, you are responsible for arranging transport for the Participant to get to and from any service / activity.

9.2 If required, we can provide a list of independent taxi services who we have used before in transporting from our services / activities and can arrange this service for you if requested. However, we in no way accept any liability whatsoever in respect of the choice of taxi service or the safety of you or your child until he/she is attending our service or activity, and this remains with you at all other times.

10. Complaints

We strive to deliver a high-quality standard to all, in which clients, parents and children are handled with respect and courtesies at all times and feel valued and listened to. We welcome suggestions on improvements and regularly ask for feedback from our client's parents/students in order that their needs can be met. Any concerns will be dealt with promptly and it is our aim that all clients, parent/students feel comfortable to voice their opinions, safe in the knowledge that they will be listened to and responded to.

10.1 Methods - The Workforce Members will follow the below complaints policy using an incident form.

Making a Complaint

Stage 1 - at this stage the client / parent / student and member of staff should be able to talk through complaints and deal with them to a satisfactory resolution.

Stage 2 - occurs if stage 1 either reoccurs or fails to meet a satisfactory outcome. At this stage the client / parents put their concerns in writing to the Customer Services Manager (DOFI / Deputy Principal) from the studios you are engaging in a contract with at hello@showcaseds.co.uk and it will be stored confidentially.

The Customer Service Manager must meet / speak with the client / parents once the matter has been investigated in order to discuss the outcome within 7 working days. The franchisee studio business owner will be alerted to this action and will take over the process if deemed necessary.

If deemed necessary, the client / parent may contact the franchise studio owner if they feel that the manager is unable or unwilling to deal with the complaint effectively.

Stage 3 - If the client / parent is still unhappy he / she may request a meeting with both the Manager and the franchise studio owner. The client / parent will be informed that he / she may bring a companion with them for support. Minutes of the meeting must be taken accurately including the decisions that have been jointly made.

All parties must sign to say that they agree with the document, and they will receive a copy of it too.

At this point the signing should signify a conclusion to the matter, and the points must be logged.

Please be aware that if you withdraw from the services / activities due to a complaint and that this withdrawal is not notified to, and agreed with, the manager or the owner, prior to withdrawal then we will not be able to issue any level of refund

The franchisee will also make the franchisor aware of the complaint to ensure an independent view and high standard customer service is being upheld.

11. Intellectual property rights

11.1 The copyright, design right and all other intellectual property rights in our promotional material, methods, systems, management design either in person or on the site and any other materials and other documents or items that we prepare or produce in connection with the services / activities or business either licensed to belong to Showcase Studios Company UK Ltd and Showcase Studios Group Ltd absolutely.

11.2 You may not use the timetable, site, materials, documents, or other items detailed in clause 11.1 for any commercial purpose.

12. Consumer rights

12.1 If you are contracting as a consumer and subject to clause 12.2 below, you may cancel a Contract at any time within seven working day, beginning on the day after you receive the Booking Confirmation, for any customers who are an established customer on an ongoing payment service your cancellation period will extend to 1 month written notice in advance of your activity / service beginning. In this case of you cancelling your first contract with us, you will receive a full refund of the price paid for the service / activity excluding nonrefundable deposits in accordance with our refunds policy (set out in clause 14 below). For all clients providing 1 month written notice you will receive a final invoice for the remaining services and a pro rata equalization for the 12-month period used.

12.2 You agree to waive your statutory right of cancellation of a Contract concluded at a distance if the Course begins at any time within the seven working day cancellation period and you or your child takes their place where appropriate on the services / activities within that time. This is because you agree to the services / activities starting before the end of the usual cancellation period provided by law and therefore your cancellation rights end when the service / activity begins.

12.3 If you cancel a Contract, you may receive a refund in accordance with our refunds policy (set out in clause 15 below).

12.4 This provision does not affect your statutory rights.

13. Price and payment

13.1 The price of any services / activities will be as quoted on our timetable and on our site from time to time, except in cases of obvious error. These prices may include or exclude VAT, as specified within the Booking Confirmation as necessary.

13.2 Prices are liable to change at any time, but changes will not affect services / activities in respect of which we have already sent you a confirmation.

13.3 Our site and timetable contain a large number of services / activities and it is always possible that, despite our best efforts, some of the sessions listed may be incorrectly priced. We will normally verify prices as part of our booking procedures so that, where a sessions' correct price is less than our stated price, we will charge the lower amount when booking the service / activity with you. If a session' correct price is higher than the price stated on our site or in our timetable, we will normally, at our discretion, either contact you for instructions before booking the service / activity or reject your booking and notify you of such rejection.

13.4 We are under no obligation to provide the activity / session to you at the incorrect (lower) price, even after we have sent you a Booking Confirmation, if the pricing error is obvious and unmistakable and could have reasonably been recognised by you as a mispricing.

13.5 Payment for activity / session is due at the time that the booking is made or in line with the invoice / auto collect payment due date.

13.6 All fees are payable in advance of classes commencing, for Showcase Dance & Stage classes we are able to offer your first 2 weeks as a pay as you go option, for future terms we will forward your monthly membership direct debit subscription which will need to be paid in advance to reserve your child's place from the waiting list for the forthcoming terms

21.3 Our performance under any Contract is deemed to be suspended for the period that the Force Majeure Event continues, and we will have an extension of time for performance for the duration of that period. We will take reasonable steps to bring the Force Majeure Event to a close or to find a solution by which our obligations under the Contract may be performed despite the Force Majeure Event.

24.4. These terms and conditions will apply to any substitute services / activities we book for you.

22. Waiver

22.1 If we fail, at any time during the term of a Contract, to insist upon strict performance of any of your obligations under the Contract or any of these terms and conditions, or if we fail to exercise any of the rights or remedies to which we are entitled under the Contract, this shall not constitute a waiver of such rights or remedies and shall not relieve you from compliance with such obligations.

22.2 A waiver by us of any default shall not constitute a waiver of any subsequent default.

22.3 No waiver by us of any of these terms and conditions shall be effective unless it is expressly stated to be a waiver and is communicated to you in writing in accordance with clause 19 above.

23. Severability

If any of these terms and conditions or any provisions of a Contract are determined by any competent authority to be invalid, unlawful or unenforceable to any extent, such term, condition or provision will to that extent be severed from the remaining terms, conditions and provisions which will continue to be valid to the fullest extent permitted by law.

24. Entire agreement

24.1 These terms and conditions, the Booking Confirmation, the Participant Registration Information Form and any other document expressly referred to in them constitute the whole agreement between the business you are in contract with and supersede any previous arrangement, understanding or agreement between us, relating to the subject matter of any Contract.

24.2 We each acknowledge that, in entering into a Contract, (and the documents referred to in it), neither of us relies on any statement, representation, assurance or warranty (Representation) of any person (whether a party to that Contract or not) other than as expressly set out in these terms and conditions.

24.3 Each of us agrees that the only rights and remedies available to us arising out of or in connection with a Representation shall be for breach of contract as provided in these terms and conditions.

24.4 Nothing in this clause shall limit or exclude any liability for fraud.

25. Our right to vary these terms and conditions

25.1 We have the right to revise and amend these terms and conditions from time to time to reflect changes in market conditions affecting our business, changes in technology, changes in payment method, changes in relevant laws and regulatory requirements and changes in our systems capabilities.

25.2 You will be subject to the policies and terms and conditions in force at the time that you book any services / activities with us, unless any change to those policies or these terms and conditions is required to be made by law or governmental authority (in which case it will apply to orders previously placed by you), or if we notify you of the change to those policies or these terms and conditions before we send you the Booking Confirmation (in which case we have the right to assume that you have accepted the change to the terms and conditions, unless you notify us to the contrary).

26. Law and jurisdiction

26.1 Contracts for the booking of Courses through our site and by telephone and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with them or their subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims) will be governed by English law. Any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with such Contracts or their formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims) shall be subject to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales.
